DR. C. E. HEAVRIN SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

Charles E. Heavrin, D. D. S., of Louisville, was shot in his office in Louisville Monday, of the present week, while doing dental work for the wife of the man, Clifford Blackberry, a Louisville Tobacco Broker, who did the shooting. A 25 calibre, automatic pistol was used, the missile hitting Dr. Heavrin in the abdomen, penetrating his intestines. The cartridge shell failed to eject and only one shot was fired. Blackberry was arrested and placed under bond.

The only statement so far made, was by the wounded man and to the effect that he had gone to a cabinet to obtain an instrument to use on the patient, who was in the dental chair at the time, and on turning around he observed Blackberry standing in the door of his office, and that he was shot without cause. Blackberry and his wife left the office immediately. Dr. Heavrin managed to get to a phone and called his brother-in-law, Mr. H. D. Hays and nephew Marion L. Heavrin. His loss of blood was very great and he soon became unconscious.

Transfusion of blood, furnished by Marion L. Heavrin, was resorted to Monday night, to save the wounded man's life, with good effect. Other transfusions have since been made. Yesterday, it was said, would likely be the most critical period, although chances for recovery were thought to be about even early yesterday morning.

Dr. Heavrin is near 50. He was born in Ohio County, and is a brother of Attorney, M. L. Heavrin, of Hartford. —Hartford Republican.

Dr. Heavrin's Ohio County friends will be grieved to learn that he died Monday afternoon about 1:30, at the Norton Infirmary, as the result of the injury above described. The funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon at 2:30 in Louisville, interment also occurring in that city. His brother and nephew respectively, Messrs. M. L. and Cecil H. Heavrin, accompanied by their wives, attended the funeral. The former had been at his brother's bedside since Tuesday of last week.

MILLS-LEACH

Miss Gustine Mills and Mr. Arthur L. Leach were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage in Hartford, Sunday night at 6:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. T. T. Frazier. The young couple was accompanied by the bride's sister, Mrs. W. H. Gillespie, and Mr. Gillespie. The newlyweds left next day for Herrin, Ill., where they will make their home, the groom being in the employ of a coal company in the Illinois city.

Mrs. Leach is the youngest daughter of the late Ashford Mills and Mrs. Charlotte Mills. She was born and reared in the Beda neighborhood, but, together with her mother, has, for a number of years, made her home in Hartford where she has been the efficient linotypist of The Republican. She is a young lady of most charming personality.

Mr. Leach is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Leach, of Hartford. He was born in the Rob Roy neighborhood of this county. He was a member of the United States Marine Corps for four years, including the World War period, rendering excellent service in his country's behalf. After he was mustered out of the service he spent two or three years here, before locating in Illinois. The young couple have our most sincere wishes for the utmost wedded happiness.

HUMPHREY-WARD

Miss Mary B. Humphrey and Mr. William G. Ward were united in marriage Tuesday evening, December 19, at the home of Rev. Granville Jagers, pastor of the Noe Creek M. E. Church, who performed the ceremony.

The bride is a most estimable lady while the groom is a prosperous and prominent farmer of the Noe Creek country. Each of the parties have a host of friends who wish for them a congenial and happy married life.

BEAVER DAM NEWS

(By W. R. Chapman)

During the present week the Death Angel has been a visitor in this vicinity. Samuel Paxton died at his daughter's home in the Sulphur Springs neighborhood last Friday evening of paralysis. He was 88 years old. He was born and lived his long life on the farm where he died. He is survived by one son, James Paxton, and one daughter, Mrs. Ben Reed, both living near the old homestead. He is also survived by several grandchildren. His remains were interred in Paxton burying ground Saturday afternoon by the side of his companion who had preceded him to the grave several years ago.

Mrs. Martha Taylor, wife of Leslie Taylor, died at her home in Beaver Dam, Friday night of blood poisoning. She is survived by her husband, five sons, two daughters, two brothers and two sisters. After funeral services conducted by Rev. W. C. Taylor her remains were interred in the Sunnyside burying ground Saturday afternoon.

At no time in the history of Beaver Dam has there been as much Christmas shopping as there has been during the past two weeks. Both rich and poor were after the goods.

The people of Taylor Mines had a Christmas tree that had a thousand worth of presents on it and there were many that could not be placed on the tree because there was not room.

Mr. Everett Chapman and son, Roy, spent the week-end with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Chapman.

Prof. Clifford Maddox, wife and little daughter, Kathleen are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Collier Maddox.
